

Don't approve relaxation of media ownership rules. We already have too little diversity of opinion on TV, radio and in the press. The media should not be controlled by a few huge companies.